

Steps to the Seller's Settlement

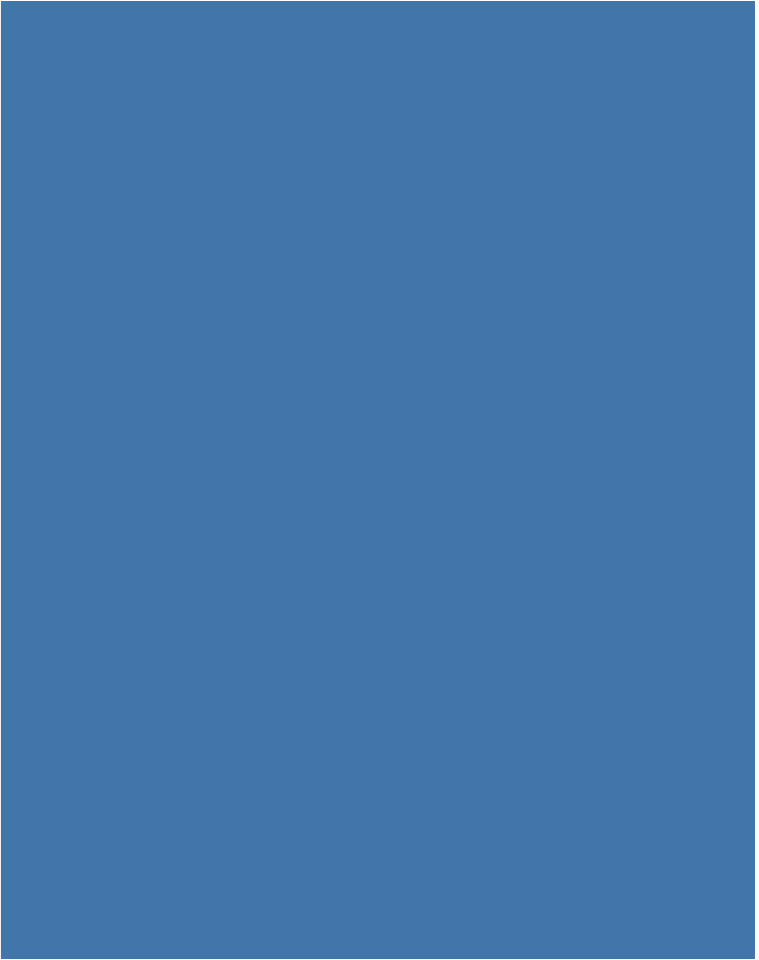

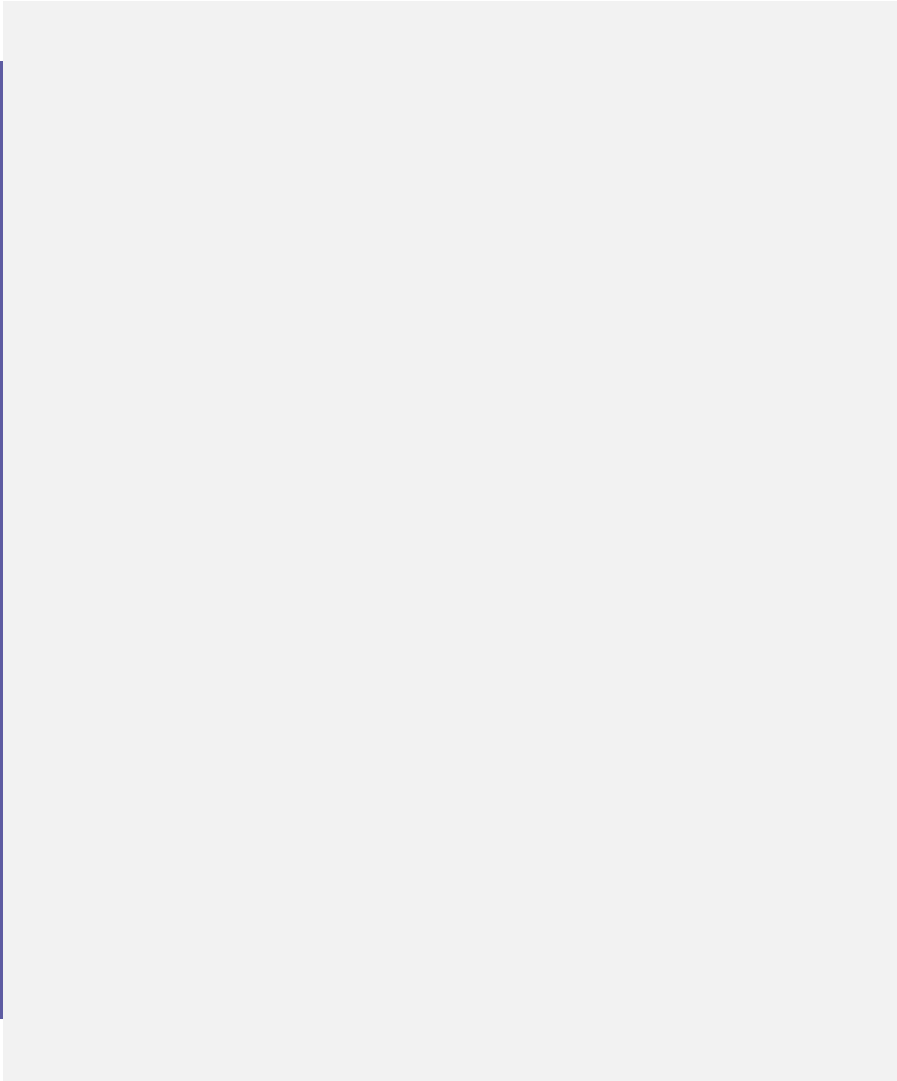

These days, selling a house seems to be the easy part – closing on the sale is where things can get a little confusing!

In this presentation, we will walk you through all of the steps Safe Harbor Title takes in preparation for your sellers closing!

Where it begins...

Once we receive the executed Purchase Agreement, we will enter all of the information for the transaction, including contact information for all parties, into our automated system. This will generate several emails and/or text messages to be sent periodically. The first being our Seller Information Form – a document for the Seller's to complete giving us the additional information we will need to begin processing the transaction.
